GUIDANCE The law states that parents do not have a right to take their child out of school for a holiday during term time as it can disrupt their education. Only in exceptional circumstances may a head teacher grant permission for leave of absence. Legal responsibility As a parent/guardian I understand all children aged between 5 and 16 are required by law to receive an education and under the provisions of the Education Act 1996, it is my responsibility as a parent to ensure the regular attendance of my child/children. Failure to do so could result in legal proceedings being taken by the Local Education Authority.

The Headteacher will consider the following points before authorising leave:

1. Whether the request fits the 'special circumstances' criteria outlined by Government legislations
2. The pupil's attendance history
3. The time of year (no requests will be granted at the start or end of an academic year, during exam time or for any pupil in Year 10 or 11)
4. The family circumstances and the reasons for wanting to take their annual family holiday during term time

Penalty Notice:

Parents who choose to take their child/children out of school without written permission from the school may be issued with a fixed penalty fine.
